From the Principal

The term has begun and continues with plenty of excitement and action. In the first ten school days this term, we celebrated our Anzacs with our own service, and participated in the Beenleigh March with the wreath laying ceremony, attended the Quota International Annual dinner, held our first disco, hosted the PCYC Anti Violence Day whilst ensuring a strong program of academic learning, inclusive of our regular Homework Club, After School Activities, Breakfast Club and Teys Lunch Club.

There are so many more interesting and challenging learning experiences for our students to learn and grow through for the remainder of the term. Activities on our calendar include Mothers Day stalls, P & C day, Book Fair, Education Week, Spelling Bee, School Photos, Life Education, Under 8’s Day, District and Regional Cross Country, Gala Days, Sports Day and School Officer/Cleaners/Office Staff Day.

Thank you to the many parents who have ensured that their children are at school every day, on time and ready to learn. I know this support is valued by our class teachers who work very hard to provide appropriate learning experiences for all students who attend Eagleby State School.

We participate in and value our community

We had a record number of students and adults march for Eagleby State School on Anzac Day. Thank you to all the parents who supported their children to be a part of an important learning and cultural event. Thank you to the staff who also supported the event and students.

Last Saturday night, a group of representatives from Eagleby State School attended the annual QUOTA Beenleigh International dinner to accept a cheque for $2000, which will support learning programs that utilise iPads. It was a memorable evening for everyone as Geoff Brind, Head of Special Education Services, accepted the cheque on behalf of the Special Education Program.

Our P & C held an particularly well attended disco on Friday night. Students enjoyed a sausage sizzle and danced with imagination and style to the DJ skills of Chappy Nick. Thank you to our P & C for continually volunteering their time and talents to raise money for our school, to ensure that every child receives the very best education.

Last Saturday the Beenleigh PCYC hosted a great day with the message to ‘Stop the Violence’. The day had all the elements of a good time: a free BBQ and soft drinks, a live band, information about Speaking Out Against Violence, a jumping castle, police cars and vans that community members were allowed to explore and rugby games for the children and adults. Watch out for this event next year!

Be Safe, Be Respectful, Be Responsible
Last week at the South East Regional Day for Principals, Eagleby State School was privileged to have one of its students deliver the Welcome to Country address to open the day. Rickechei Dayton is to be commended for doing an outstanding job. He spoke calmly, clearly and with confidence.

Breakfast Club becomes Environmentally Friendly

Our Breakfast Club, which runs every morning, has had some innovative and delicious additions this term. The PCYC has supplied us with reusable bowls, cups and utensils. The students wash their own equipment, which is teaching them independence and greatly reducing our daily waste. On Thursdays we now have a hot breakfast with eggs and baked beans being served. Sometimes our exceptional volunteers provide warm porridge for one other morning a week. This is a program that combines many community services, all supporting our students to begin the day with a full stomach and energised brain for learning.
Staff Changes
There have been some staff changes this term. We have welcomed Vanessa Kibbey back from maternity leave to work part-time with Kylie Ayling in Blue K. Jennifer Hughes joins Bridgette Dally in Prep, with both teachers also working part time. Kerenza Misso will be taking leave from tomorrow, with Shaun Bennett teaching Blue M.

Our School Uniform
At Eagleby State School, we are proud of who we are, therefore, how we present ourselves really counts. We wear our school uniform with pride. Our Uniform Shop sells our school shirts, shorts and jumpers. We appreciate parents’ support our school uniform, with their children wearing predominantly black/white joggers with black/white shoes laces. Jewellery is confined to a watch and religiously or culturally significant necklaces, tucked into the school shirt.

It is expected that all students will wear winter clothing that is dark green in colour and comply with our school style; jumpers are plain and do not have a hood. Winter uniforms can be purchased at our Uniform Shop or, alternatively, generic brand winter uniforms can be purchased from popular chain stores.

I am aware that some students will endeavor to convince their parents that it acceptable to wear warm clothing in colours other than dark green. I thank all parents in anticipation of their support with this request. We look so proud of our school when we wear it correctly. It does say something about the importance of belonging to Eagleby State School and our great community.

Our school uniform policy states:

DRESS

Full details of the school’s dress code can be found on the Responsible Behaviour Plan. Please take the time to read and familiarise yourself with our Policy on dress code. In summary, students should abide by the following:

- Students must not adopt dress or grooming that will cause undue comment or attention such as immodest attire, coloured and unusual hair cuts, Mohawks and tracks etc or make-up/fingernail polish.
- Except for small studs or sleepers and watches, no jewellery is to be worn. Medical alerts/cultural items to be referred to school administration - (These items should be covered at all times)
- Clothing worn under the uniform should not be visible.
- Hats, footwear and shirts must be adequately protective.
- THONGS, VISORS, BEANIES, CAPS, HOODIES, SLEEVELESS OR SINGLET TOPS ARE THEREFORE NOT ALLOWED.

Uniform

GIRLS’ UNIFORM
Green shorts / Skorts or Checked dress (only up to size 8)
Eagleby State School Polo shirt with logo
Joggers – predominantly black or white with black or white laces
White socks
Eagleby State School sun safe hat – (bucket)
Bottle green tracksuit – no hoods permitted.
Girl’s hair must be tied up (bottle green or black ties) if collar length or longer.
Jewellery - Sleeper style earrings and watch only.
Coloured polo shirt (red, blue, yellow) as per house for sports carnivals.

BOYS’ UNIFORM
Green shorts
Eagleby State School Polo shirt with logo
Joggers – predominantly black or white with black or white laces
White socks
Eagleby State School sun safe hat – (bucket)
Bottle green tracksuit – no hoods permitted.
Jewellery - Sleeper style earrings and watch only.
Coloured polo shirt (red, blue, yellow) as per house for sports carnivals.

Footwear
Students are required to wear closed in joggers which are predominantly black or white, with black or white laces and white socks to school each day. Students that do not have safe footwear, joggers not canvas, will be required to remain safe in the ‘No Hat, No Play’ area during lunchtimes and will not be allowed to play until the appropriate footwear is worn to school. This rule is for the safety of students, minimising the effects of potentially hazardous situations.

Hats – No Hat No Play
It is endorsed policy at Eagleby State School (by the P & C Association and staff) that all students are required to wear sun safe hats when playing in the playground. Between 9.00am and 3.00pm, students not wearing hats will be directed to sit in our sheltered “NO HAT ZONE”. This policy has arisen out of our concern for the damage caused by the sun to skin, and Queensland Government policy. Caps are not permitted.
Student Resource Scheme
Eagleby State School does not have a book list scheme, where parents independently purchase teacher nominated items and students bring them along on the first day of school. In place of this, parents pay $120 per student and the school provides the stationery and learning materials for students as a convenience to parents. This is different to many schools, which may have a book list and an additional voluntary contribution scheme. It is expected that parents pay the $120 per student for the stationery materials that are provided, as this is a very different arrangement to the voluntary contribution scheme. If you have any questions or concerns, please see me at your convenience.

It's NOT OK to Be Away
Every day that a student attends school, they are learning. Every day that a student is away, they miss out on that learning. Please join with us in making sure that your child receives the very best education, by attending school, on time, every day in 2014.

Sun Safe Hats at School
It is important that all students are sun safe even in the cooler months. This means wearing a hat during all play times. All hats that are worn at school must have a broad brim so that student's ears and necks are well protected. It is preferred for students to wear our Eagleby School hat, which has been designed to be sun safe and go with our school uniform, which we wear with pride. The school hat can now be purchased at the tuck-shop.

ANZAC DAY 2014
Eagleby State School students had two opportunities during the ANZAC week to reflect on those who have gone to war for our country. At our special ANZAC assembly at school, we were honoured with the presence of our own resident war veteran, Mr. Tom Gibb from Palm Lake Resort, who delivered a moving speech to our students. On ANZAC day, our school choir performed at the Eagleby Community Centre in the morning, whilst a record number of our students and families attended the important ANZAC March at Beenleigh later that day. Our students laid a wreath on behalf of our school community. Thank you to all those families and students for representing Eagleby State School that day.

Lara Smith – Deputy Principal

Lately the office has been receiving many last minute requests for change of pickup places, people and times for students across all year levels. We realise many of these changes are unavoidable but we ask that firm arrangements are made with your child/children before they leave in the morning.

Alterations to these arrangements should only be made in an emergency.
Students of the Week - 1-5-14

- SL - Sade - Being an enthusiastic learner & always doing her best in class.
- PB - Jordana - For fantastic behavior in class.
- PD - Tanya & Jayda - For working in a group & writing a wonderful acrostic poem.
- RA - Joshua - For showing resilience during week 1 of Term 2.

Congratulations & well done !!!!!!!

ORAL HEALTH

Under the Commonwealth Government’s Child Dental Benefits Schedule (CDBS) which commenced on 1 January 2014, children aged from 2 to 17 years, whose families receive Family Tax Benefit A, will qualify for dental services up to the value of $1000 per child per two years. The CDBS requires a parent/legal guardian to attend all dental appointments with their children and sign the necessary forms.

From 22 April, all dental examination and emergency appointments will be made by calling our Oral Health Hub (the Hub) on 1300 300 850. Families can make appointments at any one of our school dental clinics or other clinics in Metro South Health, by calling this central number.

WALK SAFELY TO SCHOOL DAY

On Friday, 23 May, we will be holding the annual National Walk Safely to School Day.

We are encouraging all students to walk to school on this day. Walking to school is fun, good for the environment and much healthier than driving. Students need a minimum of 30 minutes exercise every day. One step uses 200 muscles, that is far more than using 17 muscles from smiling. So why not combine both and walk to school smiling!

This year a FREE APP is available to download. The App maps children’s walks to and from school. Participants can challenge themselves, classmates, other classes and even other schools and they can win great prizes! Take the challenge and go to walk.com.au

We will be meeting at Cecil Clark Park on Friday

23rd May at 8am to walk to school, so please join us!
Writing Group
This term some of the Year 3 students have been working with me in order to further develop their writing skills. I gave the students a banana as a stimulus for their writing. They then used the Braidy Doll structure to complete their stories. These are just two narratives that have so far been published. Congratulations to Fiona and Robert. I hope you enjoy reading their stories as much as I did.

Jack’s Yellow Banana
By Fiona 2.5.14

“YUM. YUM!” Jack yelled. He was holding a large yellow banana in his left hand. He did not want to eat his special banana at school until the second break.

“Jack, eat up your delicious banana,” the teacher said. But Jack said, “No. I will put it in my lunch box and I will eat it after school”.
JACK felt miserable.

When it was the end of school, Jack peeled back his banana and took a big bite of it. Jack said, “Munch. Munch!” He ate it all up. Then he had the most enjoyable banana in his whole entire life. He went to his mother and said, “Can I have another banana tomorrow for school?” “Yes you can” said Mum. “And you can have more bananas when we get back home. Jack yelled at the top of his voice, “Yeeaaahhh!” He jumped up and down with such excitement.

When Jack got home he got out the biggest, most scrumptious banana. “Oh Jack, you really love bananas don’t you” whispered Mum. Jack ate his bananas everyday so he never got into trouble again. He never left food in his lunch box at school. He felt so ecstatic.

Mr Banana’s Problem
By Robert 7.5.14

SLOP!

Mr Banana falls out of the wooden banana crate onto the fruit shop’s dirty floor. His friends were all back in the banana crate. Mr Banana got battered and bruised from falling out of the crate and wasn’t feeling well at all. The rest of the bananas felt concerned for Mr Banana but were too scared to help in case they get trodden on by customers.

Just then, Mr Banana sees somebody storming into the fruit shop and starts shivering with fear. He gets scared and rolls around the cold, tiled floor. He was still freaking out. Mr Banana starts bellowing out, “HELP! HELP! I am going to be trodden on and squashed!” The bananas panicked and nearly fell off the crate themselves.

Mr Banana starts to disintegrate and die. He needs help to be healthy again. The bananas start to plan a way to get Mr Banana up off the uncomfortable floor and back on the crate. They plan to get him up by using a yellow, twisted rope. All the bananas feel very worried because if they fail in their mission, what will happen to Mr Banana?

The bananas started to make a rope to hook up Mr Banana and haul him in. In ten seconds the rope was complete. They launched the rope down! Suddenly the bananas split up, not quite like the dessert.

A moment later they realised that Mr Banana was with them. Everyone was elated and relieved and assisted him back to health.

All was well again in the fruit shop until…

Homework Club News
Term 2, 2014

The Smith Family and Eagleby State School Staff coordinate a homework program every Wednesday from 2.50pm until 3.50pm. This program is held in the school library and is in place to support students with their homework needs. Each session commences with a lovely healthy snack.

We currently have six volunteers that attend each week’s sessions. We are very appreciative of their support as without it the program would be extremely difficult to run.

All students are enthusiastic and positively work with the volunteers. This is what some of them had to say.

“It is good to come to the homework club because the volunteers help us with the work we have trouble with. They help us understand and teach us new ways to think about the trouble we have. They make it easier for us.” said Louie.

Byron said, “The club is good for us because we have the opportunity to get our homework done. If there wasn’t a club like this we wouldn’t get our homework done and then we wouldn’t have Golden Time at school.”

If you think your child could benefit from this service please speak with your child’s teacher and they will be placed on a waiting list.

Kind regards

Learning Tip

Why Read Aloud to your Child?

When you read aloud, your child:

- Learns about words and language, about grammar, new, complex and difficult words and interesting words.
- Listens to the sounds in words and notices how some are the same and some are different.
- Builds their vocabulary with new words read.
- Expands their listening skills. Remember: The art of listening is an acquired one. It must be taught and cultivated gradually—it doesn’t happen overnight.

Talk about the characters, settings, and plot and relate them to their own lives.

Reading Aloud - Stimulates the mind. The listener is required to actively create the images and characterisation necessary to understand a story. Television, on the other hand, is a passive activity, which supplies its own images. The brain goes to sleep. Reading Aloud “works” because it stimulates a child’s brain to be active (even though the child thinks he/she is merely being entertained).

Reading Aloud - Creates better readers. This means both preparing children to be able to read; and for children already reading, improving their ability with words so they can read better.

Reading Aloud - Enables students to better succeed at all tasks in school that require the ability to listen. It does this by increasing students’ attention span, vocabulary and understanding of how grammar, sentences and paragraphs work. It introduces them to more complex characters and plots. Best of all, none of these skills require worksheets or drill. Reading aloud yields better readers and better students.

Reading Aloud - Brings literature to our children. Literature expands our minds. It exposes children to new and different perspectives, cultures, points, of view, contexts, situations, phenomena... It teaches children -without them knowing it- to be more open-minded, versatile and more curious.

Reading Aloud - Is an incomparable way for parents and children to spend - and share - time together; to develop and grow an emotional bond. Studies have even shown that information and knowledge are retained better when accompanied by an emotional attachment. Reading Aloud brings you stories and love and educational merit.

Healthy Tip

Snacks and School-Age Kids

With homework, activities, lessons, and sports, school-age kids are busier, and probably more independent, than ever. Some may still need three meals and two snacks per day — usually one mid-morning and one after school.

But the morning snack could become unnecessary depending on lunchtime at school and as kids get older. Talk with your kids to find out.

Unless you have an especially early dinner time, most kids still need an after-school snack to help them stay focused on homework and other after-school commitments. Try to pack healthy snacks for after-school activities of kids who aren't coming right home.

Kids who come straight home after school probably can start fixing their own snacks (with permission, of course). Leave things in the fridge that can be grabbed quickly — veggie sticks and dips, yogurt and berries. If you’re serving fruit or a salad with dinner, consider letting kids eat that early to take the edge off.

School-age kids are capable of understanding why it’s important to eat healthy, but more than ever they look to the people they love as role models. Make healthy snacking a family affair and your kids will take it to heart.

Here are some snacks that school-age kids might enjoy:

- low-sugar, whole-grain breakfast cereal with low-fat milk
- low-fat string cheese
- fruit smoothies made with low-fat milk or yoghurt
- nuts and raisins
- whole-wheat pita slices, cut-up veggies, and hummus
- whole-grain pretzels
- fruit slices dipped in low-fat flavoured yogurt

- The Tuckshop helpers - Shirlene, Courtney and Jarred both of whom are ex students of Eagleby.
- Our security staff for the night Eileen and Judy.
- Mr Ferrari the groundsman for setting up the area.
- Special helpers Mrs Teresa West, Kali, Matthew, Dylan, Bethany, Nicholas.
- The office staff for printing the notes.
- The teachers who helped on the night.
- The cleaning staff for cleaning up the hall after the disco.

Lastly a BIG thank you to the students who braved the weather to attend. You all looked so nice, dressed in your disco themed clothes, and you all had big smiles on your faces and lots of ‘please’ and ‘thank you’ were used. We can’t wait for our next disco. Congratulations to Melanie Silcock the winner of the $50 lucky number.

Reminder

The Mother’s Day stall is on Friday for the Prep to year 3s. The remainder of the gifts will be sold at the front gate after school on Friday.

A huge thank you to the parent who donated gifts for the Mother’s Day stall. It is greatly appreciated.

Giants BBQ

Thank you to the parents and students who give up their Sunday mornings to help with this fundraiser. The money raised from this goes towards Eagleby State School P & C Projects. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact the office or a P & C member.

News Flash!

NEWS FLASH!!!...It has been announced that the P & C volunteers are getting a pay rise! So that means more big smiles and double the amount of please and thank you from the students…BUT no money is involved as we are all VOLUNTEERS and what we do for the Eagleby State School community we do because we care for the community.
